INVESTIGATING SLOCUM DISASTER

AN IMPORTANT POINT BROUGHT OUT

Examination of Hold of the Vessel Shows Fire Started in a Barrel—Inquest Will Be Completed to Day.

New York, June 27.—The coroner's jury investigating the Slocum disaster to day examined the hulk of the burned steamer and visited the scene of the disaster. Federal authorities investigating the disaster were also aboard the Slocum to day. An important point was brought out by the coroner while the jury was examining the hulk. Coroner Berry led the way to the forward hatchway, a blackened opening in the midst of a pile of rotting life preservers, tangled iron and half-burned barrels.

Terrance McManus, counsel for the Knickerbocker Steamship company, was asked by the coroner if he would concede that that was the spot where the fire was first discovered. McManus declined to concede anything and Edwin Brandow, assistant engineer, was called as a witness and answered the question affirmatively.

Former Fire Marshal Thomas F. Frell said he had examined the hold of the vessel the day it was raised. He found the fire had started in one of the barrels. "How can you tell?"

"The barrel tells," Frell replied, holding up one of the loosened staves. "Blackened edges show it was burned from the bottom and from the inside out. There are no marks of burning on the outside except in small places where it burned through."

The inquest will probably be completed to morrow.

The work had practically been completed, when orders were given to allow a small quantity of water to enter the conduit. DIED SMILING

Frank Burness Assists in Preparing for Execution in Electric Chair.

New York, June 27.—Frank Henry Burness, one of the most remarkable prisoners at the Sing Sing prison, went to death in the electric chair to day with a smile on his face. He walked from his cell and seating himself in the chair assisted the men in adjusting the straps which were to bind him. Four shocks were given before he was pronounced dead.

The crime for which Burness was executed was the killing of Capt. George H. Townsend last November in a quarrel over wages, but he had confessed to having murdered no less than four persons.

"I deserve to die," Burness told the prison officials after all efforts to save him had proven futile, "and the sooner they put an end to my troubles the better. I've an uncontrollable temper and if released would only commit more violent crimes. I'd kill a man for 5 cents as quick as for anything else."

Burness was a sailor, aged 41. He refused religious consolation and there was no clergyman with him at the end.

FEELING OF UNCERTAINTY.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 27.—Uncertainty as to the result is the feeling here on the eve of the contest for the rowing supremacy between the crews of the Universities of Pennsylvania, Columbia, Georgetown, Cornell, Wisconsin and Syracuse. Changes in various boats have been so frequent that it has been difficult to intelligently compare the respective 'varsity' crews. Coach Courtney, of Cornell, has had the most trying experience in this particular and despite the fact that two of his men are to row in two races he expresses abiding faith in the hardy men he has prepared for the struggle. Wisconsin stands next to Cornell in betting to night and in distinction from other years there is some enthusiasm who are willing to wager the westerner will win the 'varsity' race.

GLOOMY VIEW OF SITUATION

TRouble IN THE RUSSIAN ARMY

Officers Divided Into Cliques and Fighting Only for Their Own Interests—Common Enemy Is Forgotten.

Tien Tsin, June 27.—The correspondent of the Associated Press has seen a 'transcript of a private letter from an officer high in command under General Kuropatkin to a brother officer giving a gloomy view of the situation for Russia and making disclosures. The writer said:

"It is a shame to see officers constantly quarrelling, divided into cliques and fighting for their own interests until Japan, the common enemy, is forgotten. Every one, from the vicerey and Kuropatkin to insignificant subalterns, is quarrelling and unwilling to obey orders. In the eyes of correspondents and foreign attaches we are disgraced. Until the whole system is changed we cannot hope for victory. Jealousy and suspicion are rampant throughout the army."

ALEXIEFF'S REPORT.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—The emperor has received the following telegram from Alexieff, dated to day:

"According to reports received from Rear Admirals Witthoff and Grigorovitch, dated respectively 20 and 23, the sortie of the Port Arthur squadron was preceded by prolonged work in destroying the enemy's mines by means of nets carried off all ships, boats and on harbor dredging flotilla. The night of June 22-23 a fight occurred off Port Arthur between our torpedo boats and Japanese torpedo boats, in which Captain Blodoff and Lieutenant Smirnov were slightly wounded. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon our squadron put to sea, when eleven Japanese ships and twenty-two torpedo boats were visible on the horizon."

BATTLE IMMINENT.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—Lieutenant General Sakharoff's dispatch to night confirms belief the great decisive battle of the campaign between Kuropatkin's main army and the armies of Kuroki and Oku is imminent. The three armies probably aggregate 300,000 men and their outposts are to day in touch all along the line. The Japanese evidently tried to draw Kuropatkin as far south as possible, holding out as an incentive a check to the advance of Oku's main army. Meantime Oku swung sharply to the eastward to join Kuroki toward Chapan Pass, Kuroki at the same time moving a strong force by the right flank toward Hancheng.

The main Japanese advance continues along the main Feng Wang Cheng-Liao Yang road, avoiding Mao Tien pass by a detour to the northward. The advance in all points is being attended by constant skirmishing. Nothing is known here of the exact point at which Kuropatkin's main force is concentrated, though it is believed a large part of the Liao Yang forces have been moved to a point between Kin Chau and Ta Tche Kiao. According to an Associated Press dispatch from Ta Tche Kiao to day a large force has pushed southward from Ta Tche Kiao against Oku. While Kuropatkin is thus extending himself the Japanese with great mobility seem to be trying to concentrate for the purpose of striking Russian in the flank and rear.

Alexieff's message to night throws little additional light on the sea fight off Port Arthur. The loss of three vessels of the Port Arthur fleet is admitted to be a severe blow, especially if not purchased by greater loss to the Japanese than reported by Togo.

WAR REPORTS

St. Petersburg, June 27.—The General staff has received a dispatch from Lieut. Gen. Sakharoff dated June 26, detailing several skirmishes with the Japanese who were advancing along the northern Shu Yen-Kachiau road from Toutaukau and Pansuip in the direction of the Wei Ta pass. On one occasion a battle took place in which the Russian lost a lieutenant and five sharpshooters.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—Dispatches received here from Tatchekiao indicate that both Russian and Japanese armies are moving into contact for a great battle which even now may be in progress.

Kuropatkin yesterday assumed the offensive against Oku, while Kuroki from a position fourteen miles to the eastward was moving against the Russian flank at Hancheng.

The Japanese have evacuated Senchen apparently with the object of enticing Kuropatkin south. In the meanwhile Kuroki is advancing on Hancheng ready to attack the Russian left and is moving troops north from Feng Wang Cheng.

The result of recent developments, it is believed by the general staff, will defer prospects of a big battle. The Russians lost eighty-one men in the recent fight northeast of Feng Wang Cheng on the Mukden road.

Dated General Kuroki's Headquarters in the Field, June 26, via Fusan.—(Delayed.)—The Japanese have advanced for two days and a battle is expected near Mao Tien Ling pass, where the Russians are entrenched. A Russian outpost of 300 retreated before the Japanese and several Russians were captured.

WITHOUT A CLUE

Nothing Known of Whereabouts of Kent Loomis—Rumors Denied by His Brother.

Washington, June 27.—Assistant Secretary of State Loomis has had nothing whatever to confirm or contradict the rumor that the body of his brother, Kent J. Loomis, has been washed ashore on the French coast and in spite of energetic efforts of the combined foreign and consular service of the state department not the slightest clue has yet been obtained with reference to the mysterious disappearance. The fact nothing has been heard of the lost man is tending to confirm the fears of his family that he was either drowned or has met foul play.

The assistant secretary this afternoon took occasion to deny very emphatically the number of reports emanating from Parkersburg, W. Va., the home of his brother, which stated the family had received word from his some days ago he was having trouble with Billis, with whom he was travelling.

Word has been received that Billis offered to remain on the scene for two weeks to assist in the search for Loomis and had offered on his return to Plymouth to aid the authorities there, but it was thought that no such assistance would avail in the search.

London, June 28.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Kent J. Loomis continues to attract much attention from London newspapers. The police of Plymouth now say Loomis was drowned, but that he must have fallen overboard before the vessel reached her anchorage. After a most exhaustive search and investigation of every clue they are confident he did not land at Plymouth.

There is no confirmation of the report to the Central News from Hamburg Loomis' body has been washed ashore near Cherbourg, France. A dispatch to the Associated Press from Hamburg says nothing is known there of anything which would give rise to such a report. Neither in London nor Plymouth, has anything been developed throwing the slightest light on the situation and where it was at first believed a few days would solve the question of the whereabouts of the missing man the gloomiest view is now taken.

AFFAIRS TO BE CLOSED.

Milwaukee, June 27.—The affairs of Henry Herman, the financier who disappeared a year ago, will be closed to morrow. Total claims filed were $33,000; assets, $3,474. Of attorney's fees exceeding $3,000 only $500 was allowed. Creditors will receive no dividend, as expenses of administration of the estate ate up what was left.

BROKE PLATE GLASS

Tom Doyle, alias Thomas Humphreys, said to belong in Springfield, got into trouble with some of his friends here Sunday and in retaliation threw a brick through the plate glass in the front of the saloon back of the opera house owned by Reich Bros., of Springfield and run by Andy Roberts. He also did some good fight work, notwithstanding the fact that he has a pot leg.

The man was arrested by Policemen Tracy and Deatherage and had a hearing Monday afternoon before 'Squire Reid, and in default of bail was taken to the county jail.

TRACKLESS RAILWAY.

Novel Line Being Constructed by Mannheim Community in Prussia.

United States Consul Langer, at Soilingen, Germany, reports to the department of commerce and labor at Washington that a trackless railway is being erected by the community of Mannheim, which will be the first of its kind in Prussia. It will run from Mannheim to Langenfeld, about two and a half miles, with two short branches intended for freightling purposes.

For entering farm yards lying close to the road a connector and flexible cable fifty to seventy feet in length will be used to transmit the current to the motor car. When these trains pass each other one will remain standing under the wires and disconnect its current until the other has passed.

Farmers' wagons can be attached to the end of the train provided the ordinary tongues are replaced by shorter coupling tongues. Five or six double trips at the rate of eight to ten miles per hour will be made daily on schedule time.

Consul General Cole, at Dresden, Germany, reports that experiments also have been made near Dresden with railless electric roads, but it seems that the lines did not prove a marked success from a financial point of view, partly because located at points where the travel was sparse and partly because of the expense in operating.

DISCUSS MILES' CANDIDACY

WANT FULL FLEDGED PROHIBITIONIST

Delegates Insist That Candidate Should Believe in Policy and Methods of the Party—Convention Begins to Day.

Indianapolis, June 27.—Prohibitionists to night held a meeting which served as an introduction to the national convention. William Frost Crepin, of Akron, Ohio, State Chairman Charles R. Jones of Pennsylvania, National Chairman Stewart and others were among the speakers. The possibility of General Miles' nomination is being discussed by delegates. While it is admitted Miles is in a broad sense a Prohibitionist, some delegates insist they "not only want a man who believes in Prohibition but a man who believes in the policy and methods of the Prohibition party. Neither Miles nor his friends have said that he is a Prohibitionist in that sense and there are many Prohibitionists who believe it wise to nominate a man who has been a Prohibitionist in the party sense of the word in the past."

It is also stated that though Miles has signified he will accept the nomination if it be given him, when his letters are produced they show this is only an inference and that the general up to this time has not committed himself.

Horace Langdon of Beatrice, Neb., A. G. Folgerburger of Lincoln, Neb., A. U. Coats of Iowa and other prominent delegates held a conference to night to consider advisability of issuing a "round robin" calculated to influence the vote of delegates against the nomination of Miles. One of the principal reasons set forth in the proposed "round robin" as to why Miles should not be nominated is his reported desire to flee the Prohibitionist and Democratic vote. It was decided action will be deferred until to morrow, when a special meeting will be held.

Pittsburg, June 27.—Local delegates to the national prohibition convention left for Indianapolis to night. Attorney Homer T. Castle, one of the delegates, said Miles will be nominated by A. V. Crane, of Boston, Rev. Dr. Eaton, of Allegheny, who has been mentioned for the first place on the ticket, will place Castle's name before the convention for vice president.

A FLIGHT TO THE NORTH

Shooting the Rapids of the St. Lawrence and Exploring the Saguenay—Glimpses of Quebec and Montreal.

It is strange that so many people who cross the ocean to indulge in the delights of travel do not take the trouble to visit interesting places within easy reach on this continent. There are doubtless many persons who can talk entertainingly of the marvels they have seen in the United States, but know nothing of Canada, and do not dream of the grandeur of the Saguenay river. Yet any night in the summer or early fall one can board the steamers of the Richelieu and Ontario Navigation Co. and two nights later find himself on the deep and mysterious Saguenay, passing cliffs that tower 1,000 and 1,500 feet in the air, and the next morning awake at Chicoutimi, the farthest point at which the river is navigable for steamers of moderate size.

The trip down the St. Lawrence and up the Saguenay is a continuous delight for one seeking a change of scene and air. Nothing could be more exhilarating than to step from one's stateroom to the forward deck about 6 o'clock in the morning and look toward the Thousand Islands as the steamer enters the St. Lawrence. The islands never appear more beautiful than in the light of the new risen sun while the encircling waters dance under a brisk breeze. Such was the view that met the writer's eyes on a recent morning, and though he was familiar with the islands, they had taken on a new and wonderful charm.

It was dark when the boat reached Tadoussac, at the mouth of the Saguenay. As she left that old settlement and started on her journey up the Saguenay the moon, just past the full, came up and illumined her wake, at either side of which the dark waters of the deep river rolled away like oil. That night the writer sat up on the after deck until 2 o'clock by moonlight and the sight well repaid him for doing so. The Saguenay is a magnificent river, with towering mountains, at intervals, on either side, and a more fascinating picture than the great stream receding under a flood of moonlight can hardly be imagined.

When morning dawned a mist hung over the river, and it was nearly 10 o'clock before the boat reached Chicoutimi. What surprises the visitor most in Chicoutimi is its immense church, Chicoutimi is a struggling town of about 4,000 inhabitants, yet it has a church larger than any in this city. In fact, throughout French Canada every little town and village has a big church that would seem large for a city of 300,000 inhabitants in the United States.

As beautiful as is a night view of the Saguenay, one does not get an adequate idea of the great river and the great mountains that border it until they are seen by daylight on the return trip. The boat always stops close under Cape Trinity to give the tourist time to admire that towering cliff that rises, 1,500 feet in to the air, while the water at its base is 1,800 feet deep. The front of the cape is broken by two little plateaus, which give it three peaks and on the first plateau is a statue of the Virgin, twenty-eight feet in height; that, from the deck of the steamer, looks like a doll.

But speaking of dolls, the traveler must not fail to see in the old church at Tadoussac, the infant Jesus, given to the church by Louis XIV, still wearing the dress that was made for it by one of his consorts. While never made it, Maria Theresa of Spain or Miss de Malintou, she was a good doll's dressmaker. Nor should the visitor, on leaving this church, fail to pull the bell rope which hangs at the door, for if he pulls it he will ring the oldest church bell in Canada.

The robe of the infant Jesus at Tadoussac is not the only specimen of the needle work of the queens of France to be found in Canadian churches. In the sacristy of the Church of Ste. Anne de Beauce, twenty miles north of Quebec, is a beautiful chasuble that was made by the mother of Louis XIV, Anne of Austria. She had almost despaired of giving an heir to the throne of France and promised that if she should have a son she would make an offering to every shrine of Ste. Anne in the realm of France. She bore the prince who became Louis XIV. She kept her promise to Ste. Anne and thus the church of Ste. Anne Beauce came into possession of the chasuble.

It would require a book to do justice to the marvels one sees at Ste. de Anne de Beauce, whether afflicted pilgrims resort from all parts of this continent to be healed by kissing the relic (a bone) of Ste. Anne. This marvelous relic is reputed for many years to have cured the lame, the halt and the blind who seek help at this shrine, and just inside of the main entrance to the great church, on either side of the doorway, are many hundreds of crutches in two piles reaching to the ceiling which the cured cripples have left as votive offerings.

Of course in Quebec we gave due attention to the objects of historical interest, visited the Plains of Abraham, the house where Montgomery died, and "did" the Citadel under a guide, who did not fail to point out the little cannon captured by the British from the Continentals at the battle of Bunker Hill, concerning which a bright American girl once remarked, "Yes, you have the cannon, but we have the hill."

One can spend many days in Quebec and find something to interest him at every turn he makes in the streets—and he makes a good many if he goes out at all. Every pleasant evening finds all Quebec on Dufferin Terrace. A more beautiful view than the view to be had from that point no one can imagine.

In Montreal, as in Quebec, the visitor whose stay is limited is tempted to "do" churches to the neglect of other objects of interest. This is said not because the churches are not worthy of close study, but because they are so worthy of it as to become fascinating and to make the tourist forget almost everything else. In Quebec the visitor who is interested in art could, with profit, spend days in the Basilica and the Chapel of Laval Seminary, and in the quaint little church of Notre Dame des Victoires, the place of worship most frequented by mariners, he will find votive offerings in the shape of queer old paintings that will greatly interest him. The churches of Montreal, though not so rich in art treasures as those of Quebec, are equally interesting. The immense Church of Notre Dame is simply fascinating. The chapel of this church, the chapel of the Sacred Heart, is in itself a big church. These churches and St. James' Cathedral, the Church of the Jesuits and that of Notre Dame de Bonsecours claim much of the visitor's attention. On market day, when Jacques Cartier Square is filled with farmers' wagons, it is interesting to sit in the named church and watch the farmers and the market men and women come to pay their devotions. But the visitor should not let his interest in these churches prevent him from doing justice to the Chateau de Ramezay. The museum in this old gubernatorial mansion is exceedingly interesting. By no means the least interesting part of the chateau are its vaults. The visitor should not fail to explore them, for only thus can he get an adequate idea of this famous old headquarters of so many regimes, French, British and American, for in 1775-6 it was the headquarters of the Continental army of Montgomery.

Montreal is a fascinating city. Of course it is not so picturesque as Quebec and more of the glamour of historical interest hangs over the latter, but the former is full of interest for the student of history, and the lover of the picturesque will go far before finding a more delightful drive than that up the winding way that leads to the magnificent park on top of Mount Royal. From that park the visitor looks down on a city that is already one of the great centers of population of this continent and is destined to become a marvelous metropolis.

AT ZION CHURCH.

Sunday afternoon at Zion church, near Little Indian, a profitable Sunday school convention was conducted. The worthy pastor, Rev. Arthur Evert, was not able to be present owing to appointments elsewhere, but there was a good audience and a profitable time was enjoyed by all. Addresses of an excellent character were made by Rev. M. Hicks, John Bergen and Rev. George C. Lenington, all of Virginia; Evert Martin, of this city, and others. The school there is new and the convention will doubtless add much to its prosperity.

He has been resting for some eighteen months and hopes now to be able to resume ministerial work, and should his health be spared the people of the church which has called him will have reason to be congratulated.

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Tea Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and will cheerfully testify to the public that it did me more good than all the others I put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

MEN ARE HELPLESS AS CHILDREN

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here Is a Common-Sense Safeguard.

Big, strong man is as a helpless infant when he is suddenly ill.

The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self-control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him, and in his agony he fears the worst.

The family doctor is summoned, and after a careful examination leaves a medicine that brings relief.

In a day or two the man is about his business, weak and still unrecovered from the effects of the pain and the shock to his nervous system.

His trouble was acute indigestion, brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets would have given him instant relief—would have saved him hours of suffering and the cost of a prescription.

A wise man should prepare for such emergencies.

Carry a package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and indigestion can never bother you.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets cure stomach troubles by supplying the one element, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They enable the stomach to digest all kinds of food, and to quickly convert it into rich red blood.

We know what Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to cure indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

Price 25 cents per full package. Sold only at our store or by mail.

Piles Can Be Cured

By Internal Treatment

Without the Aid of Narcotics or the Knife

You who suffer with piles know what a glorious boon it would be to you to be actually and painlessly cured. You know from actual experience that salves, ointments and other local applications do not cure. You may get relief, but you keep on suffering. There is a cause for every human ill. Remove the cause and you cure the complaint. Piles have two distinct causes: First, congestion of the liver; second, constipation resulting from poor digestion.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific

absolutely removes these causes by increasing the flow of digestive juices in the stomach, and relieving the congestion of the liver. It is a tonic for the entire bowel system and helps each particular member of this system to work easily and naturally.

You simply take a teaspoonful of this positive, internal remedy three times a day before each meal. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely free from opium, cocaine or other narcotics. It is not a palliative or temporary remedy; it produces a positive, radical and lasting cure.

to cure any case of blood, itching or internal piles, no matter how chronic or aggravated it may be. Out of over 10,000 cases there are only three on record where a positive cure has not been made.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific can be procured of any reliable druggist under an iron-clad agreement to refund your money should you take two $1.00 bottles of the remedy without receiving positive benefit.

CAME OVERLAND.

Jesse French, of St. Louis, made the trip in his automobile to this city Sunday, leaving at 5 o'clock in the morning and arriving here at 9 o'clock in the evening, after one of the most tedious trips he ever attempted overland, as the roads were muddy nearly all the way. The worst stretch encountered was between St. Louis and Alton. A heavy rain on Saturday night made the mud very deep and at many places the wheels sank to the hubs. Mr. French made the trip in a St. Louis car, made by the St. Louis Motor Car company, with which he is employed. It is an eight-horse power gasoline engine and a run about pattern.

Mrs. French, who accompanied her husband on the trip was formerly Miss Helen Kennedy, of this city, and came for a visit with friends here.

ROOSEVELT IS STRONG

Candidate—So Says Prominent New York Banker Who Belongs to Opposite Faith

New York, June 27.—James Speyer, head of the banking house of Speyer & Co., who is not a Republican, but is an old personal friend of President Roosevelt, recently made the following comments on the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt to succeed himself:

"Mr. Roosevelt has been renominated on his merits, and the Republican party, I believe, could not have selected a stronger candidate. It is generally known that there was a time when certain interests in Wall street were more or less outspoken in their antagonism to President Roosevelt, but his actions in respect to those matters which were criticized there have been completely vindicated. Most of his former critics are now among his strongest supporters. 'Those who came to scold remained to pray.' People in Wall street, as in other parts of our country, realize that in upholding and enforcing the laws against everyone, the president is giving the best protection to everyone's interests, rich and poor alike. No one who has watched public opinion in the whole country can doubt that the great mass of the American people approve Mr. Roosevelt's administration, and that they desire it to continue. I have been a sincere admirer of Theodore Roosevelt and of his administration. I believe he will be elected, and that the American people will feel proud of their choice."

Jacob H. Schiff, senior member of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., said that he had received the news of President Roosevelt's nomination with enthusiasm. He continued: "Ex-Secretary Root, in his address as temporary chairman, in no way overdid the great qualities of President Roosevelt; if anything, he rather undervalued the services rendered to the country by the Roosevelt administration. When, at the instance of President Roosevelt, the litigation against the Northern Securities company was begun, I thought that an error of judgment had been committed, but the course of events has borne out the wisdom and justification of the president's course in this important instance."

"I feel certain that there is a strong sentiment in conservative financial circles that in any emergency President Roosevelt will be found on the safe side."

The side tracks of life are filled with men who have been pushed aside by the progressive farmers of these later days. It need not be so. There is no danger signal out anywhere for the man who is bound to win.

VERY ANNOYING TO SOME PEOPLE.

People that are known to be weak and sickly, by their neighbors, are asked the question every day whether they are feeling better. Do you feel stronger? Are you gaining flesh? Their friends know if they are gaining flesh, it is one of the sure signs of returning health. If they can only get a remedy that will make solid healthy flesh, recovery is assured. People with nervous troubles, loss of flesh and strength, no ambition, languid, and always tired, have thin, watery blood. The food they eat does not nourish them, it does not make blood. If after each meal they would take Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic, their food would be turned into rich, red blood, making solid flesh and strength. The tablets are sold in boxes by all druggists for 75c or three boxes for $2. People who use this tonic gain in solid flesh from one to three pounds per week, they feel better and know they are on the road to health. Lee P. Alcott, Druggist.

TROUBLE AHEAD

Hopkins and Quinn Are Under Fire From Bryan, Hearst, Dunlap, et al—May Be Denied Seats in Convention.

Chicago, June 27.—William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, was in Chicago consulting with Mayor Harrison, W. R. Hearst and others of the anti-Hopkins element with regard to a plan for taking a contest against the Illinois delegation before the Democratic national convention at St. Louis.

The story told among the politicians was that he came back at the suggestion of Mayor Harrison. Mr. Bryan registered at the Sherman house.

He was in conference most of the day with M. F. Dunlap, the Hearst manager in Illinois. In the forenoon Mr. Bryan and Mayor Harrison had a long consultation as to the Illinois situation. Later in the day M. F. Dunlap, of Jacksonville; Theodore Nelson, one of the Hearst leaders; John W. Yantis, of Shelbyville, and Alfred Orendorff, of Springfield, were with Mr. Bryan in his rooms at the hotel. Mr. Bryan was not communicative. To almost every question put to him as to politics he replied: "I don't know anything about it."

"What is there in current stories that there will be a bolt from the St. Louis convention?" Mr. Bryan was asked.

"I do not know anything about it," he answered.

"Could you and your friends support Mr. Parker if he were nominated?"

"CRITICIZES SPRINGFIELD ACTION"

"It is impossible to talk about what should be done till after it is known who the candidates are and what the platform is," said Mr. Bryan. "The convention at Springfield, for instance, shed much light on some things that ought to be done." More than this Mr. Bryan would not say except that he would leave Chicago last night "unless I should change my mind."

"When will you go to St. Louis?" he was asked.

"I do not know just when I will go there," he answered.

"But you will go there?"

"Yes, I will be there," and with the answer came a smile and a head shake that intimated that it would be generally well known that he was there.

The main subject discussed by Mr. Bryan and those who called on him was how to bring the contest from Illinois before the national committee and the committee on credentials at St. Louis. Various methods were discussed, but in the afternoon M. F. Dunlap said that no plan had been definitely agreed upon.

GAME WARDENS

District Meeting Held at Dunlap Hotel—Representatives From Five Counties Present.

The first annual meeting of the game wardens of this district was held in this city Monday. Deputies were present from Pike, Scott, Jersey, Greene and Morgan counties. John Rowden, of Jerseyville, the district warden, was present and presided over the meeting which was held at the Dunlap hotel. The new game law has been in operation a little over a year and the purpose of the meeting was the consideration of the workings of the law and the presentation of the reports of the individual wardens to the district warden.

At the meeting several changes in the law were recommended. One change that was favored by all present was a modification of the stringency of regulation regarding the killing of ducks. As the law now stands no person is allowed to sell any ducks that he may kill and this makes it imperative on anyone who desires a brace of ducks to either kill them himself or depend upon the kindness of a friend. The wardens were of the opinion yesterday that the law should be changed so that within the confines of the state, at least, a hunter might be allowed to sell his game.

Among those who were present at the meeting were: Frank Rowden, of Jerseyville; John A. Harbourn, of Halls; J. M. Phears and R. A. Phears, of Winchester; Irvin J. Green, of Whitehall, and Walter Hanback, of Murrayville.

BALLOON ASCENSION

Great Interest Will Center in This Event on the Fourth of July Program—Messrs. Hunt Are Renowned Aeronauts.

Messrs. Hunt, the gentlemen who are to come here on the Fourth of July to make the ascension, are known as among the best balloonists in the country at the present date. In one ascension, the one who went up with the balloon stayed with it so long that there was considerable comment among the crowd below. At first the word went around that something was the matter with the balloon and that he could not get the parachute to work. Some others in the crowd made the assertion that he was afraid to jump, as he had allowed the big sack to get too high for him. There were very few clouds in the sky, but just as the balloon was passing behind one of these a tiny speck shot downward from the silver edge, opened its wings and slowly sailed away in its beautiful downward course. It was one of the highest parachute jumps that was ever made from that kind of a balloon.

At another time the parachute failed to work properly and dropped three or four times the regular distance before it opened. Mr. Hunt kept his head, however, and finally came down all right, although it was a very close call. These jumps are at all times thrilling and interesting, but when we have such artists as we now have, it will be doubly so. The experiences of these gentlemen would fill a book.

City Officials Spent Pleasant Day at Lake Mantanzas—Many Courtesies Extended.

Aldermen Moore, Johnson, Babb, Ticknor, McInnis, Higgins, Cobb and Vaughn, chaperoned by Messrs. George Davis, of the Courier, E. P. Cleary and W. H. Harney, spent yesterday at Lake Mantanzas near Havana, and report a great day. Everybody seemed to put themselves out to give the city fathers a good time. Especially did the C. P. & St. L. people go out of their way to make the trip a success. Agent J. O. Upp and George Squires went along to show them the way. Mr. Squires threw open his cabin at the lake and everything therein was at the disposal of the visitors. By the way, if any one wants to see a model cabin, let him go up and see the Squires ranch. Stove, chairs, bunks, lockers and all conveniences are there, and all so compactly arranged that there is not one inch of waste room, and everything is there necessary for the comfort of the occupants, either for a day or week. The boys could not say enough of the kindness of Mr. Squires and Agent Upp and the whole C. P. & St. L. force, from Conductor Holliday down. A more obliging set of officials surely cannot be found. Nor do they forget Expressman McBride, who almost vacated his quarters to make room for the loads of fish brought back.

They did catch fish, too—fine large dogfish, croppie, striped bass, white bass, rock bass, Dutch eel, and to McGinnis' disgust, and the slippery cat. Alderman Moore was the champion fisherman; Babb a close second, and Johnson easily last. But then he tried to reach for them with his hands and that did not work. But what was the difference. Bart had a good time—his coat is dry by this time, and the boys had a laugh.

The day was too short and the boys are planning to go back, with their uncles and their cousins. Alderman Kennedy failed at the last moment and the mayor is to be requested to remove him from the committee.

The mayor, owing to sickness of his wife and daughter, did not go, much to the regret of all.

FOUND DEAD NEAR MEREDOSIA

CHAS RICE MEETS STRANGE FATE

Delirious Condition Superinduced by Strong Drug the Cause—Was Accompanied by Child—Funeral Monday.

Charles Rice, of this city, died under strange circumstances Saturday night near Meredosia, while trying to make his way to the home of his mother, Mrs. M. A. Morris, who lives about two and one-half miles south of that city. In company with his 9-year-old son, James, he left this city for Meredosia Saturday afternoon to visit his mother, and becoming delirious, wandered about until darkness separated him from his son, who came upon the residence of James Floyd, who learned his story and took him to his grandmother's home.

Mr. Floyd, accompanied by Mr. Morris returned to the vicinity indicated by the boy and after three hours' fruitless search returned to their home to await the coming of daylight. About 3:30 o'clock the search was resumed and almost six hours later the body was found as before stated. Life had evidently been extinct for several hours.

Coroner Reynolds was notified by telephone by Manager Charles Brackenburg, of the Illinois Telephone company at Meredosia, and went to that city Sunday morning. He empaneled a jury consisting of Edward Cody, foreman; Charles Winingham, Charles Hauser, Brack Follis, Samuel Dunn and H. C. Turnham, clerk.

The inquest was held at the Morris home. The following witnesses were examined: James Rice, son of the deceased; M. A. Morris, his stepfather, and Dr. R. L. Estes, of Meredosia.

The son was the first witness examined and testified in substance as follows: His father and himself left this city for Meredosia Saturday afternoon about 12:30 on the local freight. They failed to get off for some cause or other, when the train stopped at Meredosia and were carried on to Perry Springs station. Leaving the train there they walked back to Meredosia, arriving there between 5 and 6 o'clock in the evening. Rice gave evidence of an unquenchable thirst and drank great quantities of water. At the Wabash station at Meredosia he drank several cups of water, and while passing through the village he drank much more.

They left Meredosia for the home of Rice's mother and when about half a mile from town he began to act strangely, running about wildly, picking at the leaves of the trees and bushes and calling deliriously for water. He finally scratched a hole in the sand and placing the boy's coat over it would not permit him to come near it. The boy wandered about in the vicinity and finally became separated from his father, and wandered on until he was attracted by a light in the residence of James Floyd.

Upon his arrival at the house, though much exhausted and frightened, he told his story and went in company with Mr. Floyd to the residence of Mr. Morris. The two gentlemen searched for Rice from 10 o'clock till 3 in the morning, but despairing of finding him the search was abandoned until day began to break. About 3:30 o'clock they again started out and it was about 9 o'clock that the body was discovered by Mr. Floyd. The coat was found lying about a fourth of a mile distant from the body, and the sand was marked with footprints in every direction. Rice was found face down, and it was found that he had fallen over a box of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which was abundant in the vicinity, until he had fallen on it, finally exhausted, to rise no more.

Dr. Estes testified that death was probably due to some strong opiate taken for the liquor habit, and that he had evidently taken an overdose of it.

After hearing the testimony the jury returned a verdict to the effect that deceased had come to his death as a result of a delirious condition and overdose of drugs taken as a stimulant.

Deceased was about 35 years of age and lived with his family at the corner of Goltra avenue and Brook street. He was a teamster and has been employed at different times by R. R. Chambers' grocery store; G. M. Spires, when he was in the livery business; by Cherry's barn, and for the past six weeks had been driving a water wagon for Seligman Bros. He was an industrious man and always had the good will of his employers. He was a son of Lafayette Rice and is survived by his father and a wife and three children.

The remains were brought to this city Sunday evening and taken to the home on Goltra avenue, where funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in charge of Rev. A. L. T. Ewert. Interment was in Jacksonville cemetery, the bearers being William Boylan, W. P. Berry, John Daily, Jr., John Daily, Sr., Mike Ryan and J. H. Rusk.

The first matinee will occur Thursday, July 21, with the following card: Three minute trot, green pace, 2:40 trot, special trot, 2:30 pace and special race. All entries must be made on or before July 18 at the office of Dr. J. W. Sperry.

He was driving along West College avenue about 8:30 o'clock, when one of the shafts dropped, frightening the horse which immediately began to run. Before going far the vehicle collided with a hitching post, throwing the boy out. One of his arms was slightly bruised, but otherwise he was uninjured.

Mrs. Rosa Adams, niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C.S.A., wants every woman to know of the wonders accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot tell you with pen and ink what good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me, suffering from the ill peculiar to the sex, extreme lassitude and that all gone feeling. I would rise from my bed in the morning feeling more tired than when I went to bed, but before I used two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began to feel the buoyancy of my younger days returning, became regular, could do more work and not feel tired than I had ever been able to do before, so I continued to use it until I was restored to perfect health. It is indeed a boon to sick women and I heartily recommend it. Yours very truly, MRS. ROSA ADAMS, 819 12th St., Louisville, Ky. $5000 for full proof of genuineness cannot be produced."

A NOVEL JEWEL FROM INDIA.

A Prussian physician and traveler, Dr. C. Bernan, now living at 4311 Torley street, Lawrenceville, has in his possession a very curious stone. It is a member of the diamond class of minerals and its peculiarity lies in its coloring. The stone weighs about two carats and in looking straight through the center four colors are distinguishable—violet, green, red and yellow. By looking at it on an angle, however, no less than sixteen shades of the above colors show plainly. It is cut and polished not unlike an ordinary diamond.

While traveling in India in 1881, Dr. Bernan was approached just outside of Bombay by a native who offered the stone. He bought it, paying in Indian money the equivalent of $16. The stone was unset, and while different experts pronounced it a diamond, they could not account for the wonderful coloring. Dr. Bernan had it made into a ring and, while he thinks it is worth $500, he would not part with it for any amount.—Pittsburg Press.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweet smile of a woman's mouth, something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbros-Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SUBMARINE BOAT TEST

How the Fulton's Crew Lived Under Water Twelve Hours.

NO INCONVENIENCE EXPERIENCED

Members of the Crew Ate and Slept in Perfect Comfort—No Ill Effects From Lack of Air—The Men's Only Deprivation Was Their Inability to Smoke Tobacco While Submerged.

After having been submerged more than twelve hours off Newport, in which time the officers and crew ate their meals, cooked on an electric stove more than twenty feet beneath the water, the submarine torpedo boat Fulton came to the surface shortly before noon the other day, says the New York World.

The officers and men, to the number of nine, experienced no inconvenience while beneath the water in the torpedo boat. They were divided into watches of two hours each and spent their time when not on duty in playing cards and sleeping. Being unable to smoke worried some of the officers and men worse than anything else. The board of inspection of the navy department which was in charge of the tests to which the Fulton was subjected would not permit any matches or fire to be taken aboard the boat.

Several boxes of cigars were taken aboard before the entrance hatch was finally closed, and the men were permitted to have "dry smokes"—that is, to chew cigars.

The naval officers in charge of the test say that it was one of the most severe and at the same time the most satisfactory that a submarine boat has ever undergone.

"Fresh air was forced into the compartment occupied by the crew once every four hours, in conformity with the instructions of the inspection board. At no time did the crew feel any ill effects from lack of air or too much air.

It was not until after 8 o'clock at night that the preparations for the "habitation test," which provided the boat should remain submerged continuously for twelve hours, were begun. At 10:30 o'clock the boat began to submerge and just thirteen minutes later was entirely out of sight.

Members of the crew say their stay under water was most pleasant, and that they slept as comfortably as they would in their own beds. They could plainly hear the noise made by passing steamboats and all were up early the next morning.

The chef prepared a breakfast of ham and eggs, with hot coffee, biscuits and a cereal on the electric stove, and from what he says the confinement in the submerged boat did not affect the appetite of anybody.

Preparations for raising the submerged boat were begun at 11 o'clock in the morning by the crew aboard, and five minutes later the Fulton was awash. The hatch was opened and Captain Cable, in charge of the boat for the Holland company, and Naval Constructor Woodward, of the navy department, came out. They were followed a few minutes later by the crew.

Throughout the night and day following a close watch was kept by officers and sailors of the navy to see that the Fulton did not rise to the surface within the "habitation" test. Not even an air bubble was seen in the night by the watchers.

The Fulton in November of 1902 was submerged more than fifteen hours, but the test was unofficial. The men who were in the boat say they could have remained there ten days without inconvenience.

Salt From Kansas to Indiana.

One of the queerest shipments of Kansas products that have been sent from Emporia for a long time was a two bushel sack full of rich Lyon county earth from Will Williamson's farm, four miles west of Emporia, which was sent to a man in Indiana, says the Topeka Capital. The Indian also secured some Kansas alfalfa seed and will experiment with that crop. The alfalfa earth is impregnated with a kind of parasite which lives on alfalfa and which is a very good thing for the alfalfa, because the plant flourishes on dead parasites. The soil from the field will be sattered on the soil in which the seed is planted, thus helping the plant's growth.

Carbolic Acid in Warfare.

Among the supplies that are being affected by the Russo-Japanese war is carbolic acid, says the Singapore Straits Times. That popular nerve sedative is not, however, in such great demand for Red Cross purposes, but for the manufacture of explosives. Lyddite and mellinite are both manufactured from picric acid, and picric acid is merely a form of carbolic acid.

South African Amalgamation.

In the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony, if the present rate of intermarriage between Britons and Boers is kept up, within twenty years the two races will be so welded together as to be indistinguishable, says the African Review. The only bitterness now existing is between two sections of the Dutch, the bitter enders and the scouts.

Time on the Ceiling.

An ingeniously constructed shadow clock has recently been invented by Professor Herth of Lynn, Mass., says the Jeweler's Circular Weekly. The essential feature of the invention consists of a lamp which throws upon the ceiling an optical representation of a small watch.

MATHENY & LLOYD.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, June 27.—Wheat—Sentiment was bearish from the start. At the opening the effect of heavy rains in the southwest was offset by indifferent cables and by weekly statistics, world's shipments for the week being considerably larger than had been expected and movement from Russia much heavier. September opened unchanged to 1/4 lower at 8 1/2 @ 8 3/4. Commission houses were fair sellers of July. South American weather was light. Moderate demand for September from southwestern houses caused that month to sell up to 8 1/2 @ 8 3/4. Selling by southwestern houses was an important factor the latter part of the day. The market closed weak. September down 1/2. Liverpool unchanged to 1/4 higher. At the seaboard thirteen boat loads were taken.

Corn—In spite of some influential selling the market held up remarkably well considering weak undertone of wheat. Approve-ments in regard to prospects of decreased receipts had supporting influence. Commission houses were principal buyers. There was a disposition of local traders to buy on break, although they sold early on fine weather in the west. The close was almost precisely at Saturday's figures. Liverpool 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher. On the coast three boat loads were taken. The visible increased 211,000, against 557,000 increase a year ago.

Oats—Oats were steady with moderate trading and no special feature. Prices had 1/2 range and finished about the same as Saturday. Weather good. Cash bushels new 50,000 bushels. The visible decreased 100,000.

LIVESTOCK.

Cattle—The unexpected happened to day. Receipts being only 17,000 against 25,000 expected. With a small run the market firmed up and the better class of cattle moved off briskly at an advance of 10¢/cwt. while other kinds were steady. Beef steers sold largely at $13.00 @ $13.50, common to $12.50. With a steady choice to fancy were scarce and firm at $14.00 @ $15.00. Cows and heifers sold freely, bulls fair and active, but stockers and feeders were in only moderate demand. The market was well supplied with common light to medium steers, which sold slowly. Good to prime, $14.00 @ $15.00; poor to medium, $12.00 @ $13.00; stockers, $12.00 @ $13.00; cows, $11.00 @ $12.00; Texans, $10.00 @ $11.00.

Hogs—Receipts, 35,000. Demand was animated, but packers involved the opportunity afforded by the small offerings to force prices lower and there was a decline of 5¢ at the start from Saturday's best time. Subsequently demand became firmer, prices firmed up and sales made at Saturday's prices. Mixed and butchers, $11.50 @ $12.50; good to choice heavy, $12.00 @ $13.00; rough heavy, $10.00 @ $11.00; $10.00 @ $11.00; bulk of sales, $10.00 @ $11.00. Sheep—Receipts, 15,000. There was a fair general demand and prices ruled about steady. Sheep, $3.50 @ $4.00; lambs, $4.00 @ $4.50.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, June 27.—The stock market today proved even more listless and sluggish than usual. Last week's hardening of prices and good tone with which light profit-taking at the end of the week was accompanied, were but forerunners of the rising movement would gain force and attract outside demands. New demand for stocks failed, however, to develop and disappointment caused prices to drop after the opening. Later fluctuations were languid and totally indifferent, and officials of western and southwestern railroads assert stagnation in business seemed to be passing. Reports of gross earnings for the third week of June showed a majority of increases over last year.

No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by all leading druggists.

The Big St. Louis Auto Run.

The automobile invasion of St. Louis this coming summer, when a national run will be held from various parts of the country to the world's fair, gives every indication of being the most remarkable automobile pilgrimage ever undertaken. The work of organizing the big national tour is being carried on along lines similar to the organization of an army into corps. The general committee of the American Automobile association has been and is organizing subcommittees throughout the country with members in each city or town whose participation in the tour is expected. No expense is to be spared in perfecting arrangements for the tour.

Lacrosse in Canada.

Judging from accounts of the annual meeting of the Toronto Lacrosse club the semi-professional spirit seems to have taken strong root in Canada. An item of over $300 for "testimonials" appeared in the treasurer's report, and about the only explanation forthcoming was that the money was gone and could not be recovered. This "testimonial" fund bears strong resemblance to the "prizes" that used to be furnished to some of the prominent amateur baseball teams.

EJECTMENT SUIT

Case of the Chandler Heirs vs. the Board of Education of Jacksonville Entered Upon—Interesting Question Involved.

The trial of the ejectment suit of Seabury Chandler et al vs. Board of Education of Jacksonville was entered upon in the circuit court Monday. It is a case that bids fair to attract a great deal of attention before it is concluded.

It will be remembered that when the erection of the present high school building was contemplated, in order to enlarge the site, a strip of fifteen feet extending from North Church street to North Prairie street was taken from the south side of West Court street. This enlarged the site of the high school building and also gave an additional fifteen feet to all persons holding property within the three blocks named. At the time the city council passed an ordinance vacating fifteen feet of Court street for the purposes named.

All the property as affected by the above lies in the Chandler addition to the city of Jacksonville. When the heirs of Dr. E. O. Chandler learned of the action of the city council they decided to bring suit and the question now before the court is one of the right of the city to act as it has in the premises.

The property in question was platted in 1881 under the statutory provisions of a law passed in 1827. Under the provisions of this statute when a street was platted in an addition to an incorporated village the title or fee to the street became vested in the city or village in trust only for the purposes originally designated.

The statute of 1827 is one that has been amended and enlarged from time to time to meet the needs of municipalities, and under the statute as it now reads property vacated as in the above instance becomes the property of the contiguous property owner.

When the Chandler addition was platted, however, this was not the provision of the law and the question of present import is: Did the fifteen feet in Court street revert to the Chandler heirs by the action of the city council in passing a vacation ordinance? If the property did so revert, can the city be disposed of made to pay damages to the parties injured?

Plaintiffs in the suit are Seabury Chandler, Harris Chandler, Henrietta Hammond, Julia Loughridge, Emeline Hammond and Charles D. Chandler. They are all non-residents. Some reside in Hancock county, this state, and others in Nebraska and Oregon.

Attorneys in the case are Edward P. Kirby, William T. Wilson and Plantz & Lammet, of Warsaw, for the defendants, and Harry M. Ticknor and Judge M. T. Layman for the defendants.

Most of the time Monday was taken up with the introduction of documentary evidence and further hearing has been postponed until July 11. The case is being tried without a jury by the consent of parties.

CARD OF THANKS.

Kind and dear neighbors and friends, we find that words are too feeble to express our gratitude for sympathy, watchfulness, thoughtful care and attention during the sickness and after the death of our dear husband and father.

FISHING IS POPULAR SPORT.

Fishing seems to be the popular sport just now. One dealer reports having sold over 500 cane poles and has more ordered.

Mrs. Nellie Evans Packard, of Brocton, Mass., who has been a guest of Mrs. E. C. Lambert and other friends in this city, left Monday for St. Louis. She will also visit for a short time in Chicago before returning to her home.

LAID TO REST

Last Sad Rites Over the Remains of William S. Hook—Funeral Was Private.

Funeral services were held over the remains of William S. Hook at his residence on West State street Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The funeral was of a private character and only the relatives and intimate friends were in attendance.

The simple services were in charge of Dr. A. B. Morey, pastor of State Street Presbyterian church, and consisted of a prayer and the reading of the Scripture.

Appropriate hymns were sung by a quartet composed of Mrs. R. M. Hockenbush, Mrs. E. P. Kirby and Messrs. John L. Johnson and R. M. Hockenbush. Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery. The bearers were: Dr. P. P. Norbury, E. P. Kirby, James T. King, Henry Stricker, Felix Farrell and E. A. Nixon. The floral tokens were very beautiful.

LOCALS WIN FROM DECATUR

Close and Exciting Contest Witnessed at West Side Park Sunday Afternoon.

The local ball team kept up their winning streak Sunday, although it was by the narrow margin of one run that they were victors over the Decatur team. The contest was undecided until the ninth inning and Schumm came across the plate with the winning run on a single by Magill.

Shannahan was on the slab for the locals and pitched a good game. In the ninth, however, Norris was put in to finish the game, as it was thought best to take no chances.

The visitors tied the score three times and when the tie was made in the eighth things looked decidedly interesting.

Wilson and Schulte were the opposing pitchers and both showed up well. The visitors did some sharp fielding and altogether the game was a good one and thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators present.

The score:

An elegant 6 o'clock dinner was served and the menu was an elaborate one. The table decorations were artistically arranged and were very beautiful. The occasion was indeed one of great pleasure and all joined most heartily in wishing Mr. Black many happy returns of the day.

Those present were Charles S. Black and family, W. E. Black and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Black, Miss Martha Black, Mrs. Sarah Sharpe, Dr. and Mrs. George E. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Self, Rev. A. L. T. Ewert, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Maddox, Mrs. Mary E. Cully, Albert Cully and H. H. Bancroft.

W. A. CRAWLEY, AUTHOR.

In the July "Recreation," a popular magazine devoted to out of door sports, appears a well written and interesting story of "A Night in a Pigeon Roost," by Hon. W. A. Crawley, of this city. It is a graphic account of a visit during the war of the author to a "pigeon roost," a place where the immense flocks of wild pigeons, so numerous then, and so rare now, were in the habit of roosting over night during their migrations. The facts related may seem overdrawn to those of the younger generation who have never witnessed such a sight, but to older people they will recall many similar experiences with the immense flocks which sometimes contained hundreds of thousands of birds.

Mrs. Mary E. Cully expects to leave this morning for a visit at the world's fair.

SMALLPOX CASE.

Dr. George E. Baxter, health warden, discovered a case of smallpox at 514 South West street Monday. The family of James Toler reside at that number and recently the members were in Cincinnati, where they were exposed to smallpox. They brought home with them an 8-year-old boy who was also exposed, and a day or two ago he developed a sickness which has been pronounced smallpox. The case is a very mild one and the patient is not even confined to his bed. A strict quarantine has been established and there are no anticipations that the disease will spread.

Mrs. George Hamilton was called to Arcadia Monday by the death of her relative, Carl Rudisill.

Margaret Butler, of South Church street, was the winner of the Junior Buck's range offered as a prize by the well known firm of Andre & Andre for the largest number of clippings of their advertisements appearing in the daily papers during the last ninety days.

It was a spirited contest with over 100 eager and expectant participants. Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock was the time limit and all during the early hours of the afternoon bundles of clippings varying in size were brought to the store. Early in the day a rumor was afloat that one contestant had secured nearly 30,000, and about 1 o'clock in the afternoon a sale of 19,000 for $6 was consummated on the south side of the square. All told about 125,000 clippings were handed in and of this number Miss Butler had 44,252.

All who took part in the contest will be presented with a neat souvenir if they will call at the Andre & Andre store to day.
